

Swell Party.

Last Tuesday evening, Miss Louie L. Wade gave the swellest party of the season to a number of her friends at the beautiful home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wade, of Alder Slope. Miss Maude Davis assisted Miss Wade in entertaining the guests.

After some time in social intercourse, progressive whist was the order of the evening, Mr. W. A. Ray and Miss Lucile Corkins winning first prizes; Mr. Harry Dawson and Miss Margaret Boner capturing second.

The guests were then invited to the dining room, seated in a circle around the table, which was presided over by Miss Wade and Miss Davis, dainty and unique refreshments being served by the Misses Lucile Corkins, Fay and Anise Wade from the table. In the center of the dining table was a large cake filled with prizes and over the cake hung a large bell with decorated streamers leading from it to the corners of the table. Each guest represented a certain month and were served in rotation beginning with January. The most valuable prizes captured by the guests were a gold ring and a silver thimble received by Miss Addie Knapper and Mr. Harry Dawson respectively.

The parlors and entire house were beautifully decorated with evergreens. Upon the departure of the guests they were given a quantity of the very nicest home-made candy to eat on their way home.

Those present, besides the hostess and sisters, Fay and Anise, were: Miss Maude Davis, of Wallowa, Miss Lucile Corkins of Enterprise, and the following from Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rusk, Misses Maud and Addie Knapper, Minnie Johnson, Mabel Vest, Margaret Boner, and Messrs. F. F. Scribner, K. H. Blaesser, C. R. Eberhard, W. A. Ray, W. D. McCully, I. N. Sanders, Geo. Dawson, Harry Dawson and T. K. Winston.
