Stephen Hockett and his wife Margaret. It had previously been in the possession of his gggranddaughter Arah Werner Bittner. I do not know when it was written or by whom as it does not say.

A brief account of Stephen Hockett and family.

He was married in N Carolina where he and wife Margaret commenced in very low circumstance to make a living, he having but one horse and it soon died; this lost was keenly felt, yet they persevered. Having but little land open to cultivate, he managed to raise a good crop of wheat and corn in one season, on one lot of ground. Ot being in corn the previous season a few weeks before harvest he pulled up the corn stub or roots, his wife dropping corn therin, and he covering it with the hoe. Then when the wheat was taken off the ground he commenced tending his corn and this made a good crop. I mention this that the reader may form an idea of the man. He finally moved to Ohio, and resided ther a few years, and then to Indiana, Randoplh Co where he bought land for himself and sons; and lived there until his children were all married.
Now they had lived to a good old age but the news came to his ear that there was good rich prairie in Iowa, and he seemed to think it would be best for him and offspring to cross the great Father of waters. And accordingly he and many of his connexions came here in the spring of 1837 and settled near Salem. But it was not long until they went the way of all the earth. He deceased the 26th of the 6th mo 1839 72 years 2 months and 20 days. His wife deceased 23d of ninth mo 1843; aged 76years 8 months and 11 days. They were both consistent members of the Society of Friends. Their children were all living (eleven in number) at the time of her death, and if I am not mistaken, had not a doctor in their family until they were all grown.

The following table will show the condition of their generations at the time of her death, it being written about that time by some of the relatives and kept in manuscript. and as many of their relatives are subscribers and readers of the Democrat, thought it would confer a favor on them to have it published

children 11 11 living

Notes for JOHN M. HOCKETT:

Unnamed newspaper obituary, in obituary files of Mt. Pleasant Public Library, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; probably from 'Mt. Pleasant News':

JOHN M. HOCKETT.

John M. Hockett was born in Randolph Co., Indiana, Sept. 21, 1837. When only one year old his parents moved to Iowa and settled near his late residence. He was married to Mary E. Hammar October 14, 1858.

He had a birthright membership with the Society of Friends, and was converted near the age of thirty. His faith in Christ increased and the path grew brighter as the end drew near. He has frequently expressed a desire to be ready to meet the Master when the summons should come.

After returning from Salem, near five o'clock Thursday evening, he was taken with apoplexy, and continued unconscious until he passed away at 12:15 the next day, February 20, 1903.

He leaves a faithful and loving wife, one boy whom they have raised from childhood, three sisters and three brothers, nieces and nephews and a host of friends to mourn the loss.

Funeral services were held at Cedar Creek on Sabbath morning at 11 a.m., conducted by the pastor, Bessie Ferguson.

Those present from a distance were a brother Jonathan and nephew John Hockett from Kansas; a sister, Jane Frazier from Marshalltown, Iowa; niece and two nephews, George Hockett and sister Nancy and Arthur Hammar from Ringgold Co., Iowa; also a sister of Mary Hockett, Margaret Addington and husband of Dallas Co., Iowa.

OBITUARY.

Mary M. Hockett was born Dec. 9, 1833, in Randolph Co., Indiana. She came to this county with her parents when about five years of age.

She was married to Alson G. Frazer July 21, 1851, who died Jan. 28, 1866. Seven children were born to this union, Edward H., Mattie Lamm, Hannah Moon, Ella Smith, Rebecca White, Albert H., and Alson G., all of this county.

She was again united in marriage to John M. Coffin Aug. 27, 1896; who, with her children, thirty-five grandchildren, four great grandchildren, two sisters and three brothers, are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife, mother and sister.

She had been in feeble health for some years, but was taken seriously ill near the middle of April. She bore her afflictions with patience and christian fortitude, until released by death at 5 o'clock p.m., Aug. 2, 1904.

An impressive funeral service was held at Cedar Creek on Aug. 3, conducted by the pastor, R(B)essie Ferguson, and others.

When the last feeble step has been taken,
 And the gates of that city appear
 And the beautiful songs of the angels
 Float out on my listening ear.
 When all that now seems so mysterious
 Will be bright and as clear as the day,
 Then the toils of the road will seem nothing
 When I get to the end of the way.

Notes for ALBERT LAMM:

THE HISTORY OF HENRY COUNTY IOWA contributed by Theo Lamm Wilson

LAMM, ALBERT

Reuben and Kessiah Denny Lamm came to Iowa from Ohio. Reuben was a farmer and settled near Denova, Iowa. To this union Eleven children were born.

Albert Lamm, tenth child of Reuben and Kessiah, was born near Denova, Iowa September 29, 1854. He was left an orphan at the age of seven. He lived near Denova and Salem all his life. He began the mercantile business as a huckster from a little home near the maple Grove school house. The business increased, and a store building was built along with a blacksmith shop. The post office was taken over and Denova became a reality. His kindly disposition, love for people and hard work made him a success. He was a birth right member of the Friends church. On March 6, 1872, he married Martha Frazer. To this union four children were born. Leroy the eldest died at the age of three. Leota and twins Harvey and Iola. Shortly after moving to Salem where he started his second store, his wife Martha died. December 12, 1907 he married Hanna Davis and they lived in Salem and were active in the church and social life of the community. During the last few years of his life his health failed. They were planning to return to Denova to a modern country home which was almost completed but he died very suddenly on February 18, 1924.

Leota married Clark Hallowell and to this union one daughter, Vesta was born. For many years they ran a hardware store in Salem.

Iola never married. Alson Harvey married Mary Belle Elliott, daughter of Nathan and Jane Elliott. They ran the store in Denova and continued the huckster business. They had eleven children, eight boys and three girls. Nathan (Bert) married Mabel Wheeler. Rex (Sox) married Lois Barton. Two sons, Dean and Keith. Harold married Ethel Stevens. Two children, Miriam and Steven. Delbert (Bill) married Louise Rauscher. Three sons, Delbert, Donald and Robert. Theo married Maurice Wilson. One son, Markham. Walter (Perk) married Irene White. One daughter, Gloria. Robert (Pinky) married Odetta Aufrance. George married Daryl Connor. Five daughters, Caryl, Cathy, Connie, Christy and Cindy. Ruth married Raymond Hester. Ralph married Darlene Seabbranch. Two sons, Dennis and Kent. Estyl married Dale Maust. Two daughters, Theolene and Marlene.

In later years the Harvey Lamm family moved to Mt. Pleasant were the Lamm boys were active in sports. And several had their own businesses.

Many descendant of Albert Lamm still live in Henry County.

Notes for THOMAS PENN SMITH:

THE HISTORY OF HENRY COUNTY IOWA contributed by Ralph R Brown

Thomas Penn Smith was born on November 9, 1856, in Catawissa County, Pennsylvania, the son of William Philip and Anna (Thomas) Smith. In 1857, they moved to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, where they lived until Penn was 14 years old. They then moved to a farm near Denova in 1870.

William Philip Smith was born on September 13, 1814, in Catawissa County, Pennsylvania, and died on October 19, 1871, buried in the Mt. Pleasant City Cemetery. He was one of six children; the others were: a twin Urial, Charity Smith Bird, Abigail Smith Housel, Joseph Smith, and John Smith.

Anna Thomas was born on October 26, 1821, the daughter of Abel Thomas. She and William Philip were married on December 9, 1847. They had seven children, but only Thomas Penn and Emma (born November 20, 1852, married Harvey Hockett on July 3, 1872, and died on October 10, 1920) grew to adult hood. Their youngest child Sidney was born December 24, 1858, died as a youth, and is buried in the Mt. Pleasant City Cemetery.

William Philip died on October 19, 1871, and is buried in the Mt. Pleasant City Cemetery. Anna died on July 1, 1883, and is buried in the Codell (Kansas) Cemetery.

On February 4, 1880, Thomas Penn Smith was married near Denova to Elzena "Ella" Frazier. She was born on July 16, 1860, in Henry County, Iowa, the daughter of Alson Gray and Mary (Hockett) Frazer.

Two weeks after their marriage, they moved to Rooks County, Kansas. The 450-mile trip took three weeks in a covered wagon drawn by mules. Seventeen years of pioneer life in Kansas were marked with all its difficulties and hardships, joys and sorrows, struggling along, suffering losses on account of grasshopper, hail and windstorms, drouth and sickness. They lived in a sod house.

Their tiny infant son was taken from them by the scourge of typhoid, and the other members of the family barely escaped death. On March 31, 1897, they moved to the Pleasant Hill neighborhood southeast of Mt. Pleasant. Then in 1900 they moved to the Denova community where they lived until their deaths. For more than the last ten years of her life, Ella was a total invalid.

Penn died on January 9, 1941, and Ella on September 7, 1940. They are buried in the Cedar Creek Cemetery. They were members of the Cedar Creek Friends Church. Besides their infant son, they had three children: Alvaritta "Retta" was born on February 27, 1883 in Stockton, Kansas. She married Charlie Brown.

Sidney Alson was born on October 12, 1887, in Rooks County, Kansas. On October 12, 1911, he was married to Lela Ann Kinney, the daughter of George and Martha Kinney, and who was born on November 25, 1889, near Mt. Pleasant. Sidney died on March 29, 1958, and Lela on January 6, 1919. They are buried in Cedar Creek Cemetery. They had two sons. Dale was born on August 4, 1912. On November 30, 1939, he married Marge McDowell. They had no children. Harry was born on October 4 1917. On July 21, 1940, he married Virginia Miller. Their children are Carroll (b.December 25, 1941) and Joyce (b.December 4, 1943). Harry died on January 1, 1972.

Lucile was born on April 12, 1898, in Henry County, Iowa. On June 18, 1923, she was married to Evert A. Ruggels, the son of LeRoy Samuel and Annie Mary (Cassell) Ruggles, and who was born on February 16, 1890, in Alto Vista, Kansas. They had two sons, Paul E. was born on May 13, 1928. On June 22, 1952, he was married to Thurlene J. Larkins. Their children are Paula S. (b.March 17, 1954), Thomas (b.September 5, 1955), Pamela (b.July 7, 1959), and Vance (b.June 17, 1968). Frank L. was born on December 15, 1929. On December 22, 1967, he was married to Barbara (Haage) Long. They have two daughters: Grace Long (b.March 2, 1964) and Tamary (b.January 3, 1970). Lucile died on September 27, 1966, and Evert on November 11, 1975. They are buried in Natoma, Kansas.

Notes for ELAM HOCKETT:

From "Portrait and Biographical Album of Henry County, Iowa" Chicago: Acme Publishing Company, 1888, Page 501:

ELAM HOCKETT, one of the prominent and representative farmers of Henry County, was born in Salem Twp, in this county, on the 18th of November, 1846, and is the son of Jehu and Hannah (Frazier) Hockett, both of whom are natives of Indiana, and were among the first settlers of Henry County, Iowa. They came to this county when it was hardly more than a wilderness, while yet the deer might be seen on the prairies, or the wolf be heard howling at night. Edward Hockett, the grandfather of our subject, came to this county in 1834, and was the father of ten children, of whom the second was Jehu, the father of our subject, who reared a family of twelve children, all of whom are now living.

Mr. Elam Hockett was the eldest of this family, and was reared upon the farm where he now lives, on section 36, Tippecanoe Twp. He attended a private school, the district not yet being organized, and at that time the county was very thinly settled. On the 21st of February, 1869, he formed a matrimonial alliance with Miss Sarah E. Stephenson, a native of Wayne County, Ind. They were the parents of five children: Mary Ellen, who is now the wife of M.H. Doan, of this county; Alfonso, Elnora, Fred and Edgar are at home.

Mr. Hockett in early life learned the carpenter's trade, which business he now carries on in connection with general farming. He and wife belong to the Society of Friends, and are always ready to lend a helping hand to the needy, and to comfort the afflicted. In politics Mr. Hockett holds very liberal views.

Age at Death (Facts Pg): 90 years old

Cause of Death: Cardiac Decompensation per death certificate

Notes for THOMAS ELI WHITE:

Passages taken from the "Blue Book", The White Family-Tom and Rebecca, compiled by Keith H. Garretson, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, June 1, 1997:

ARTICLE WRITTEN IN 1927, probably by Rebecca Frazer White:

Mr. Thomas Eli White will be remembered by Mt. Pleasant and Henry County people as an influential citizen. For six years he was a member of the board of supervisors and for twelve years, a member of the board of trustees of Old Whittier Quaker School at Salem.

The marriage of Mr. White and Mrs. White, then Rebecca Frazer, almost a half century ago, united two Quaker Pioneer families, which curiously enough had followed the same general course throughout three centuries.

Both the Whites and the Frazers were English and charter members of the William Penn Quaker Colony in Pennsylvania. Both, within the same decade, felt the urge for the west and settled in Indiana. At about the same period both, families were attracted to North Carolina which was then a southern Quaker settlement. Both found distaste of slavery stronger than economic benefits and removed to the pioneer settlement of Salem, Iowa, attracted there by the Quakers, many of whom had come from the south. Settling within a half dozen miles of each other, they became prosperous and influential citizens, many removing to other regions, but the majority remaining in Henry and Lee Counties. All have remained in the Quaker Church and are members of the organization at Salem and Cedar Creek.

By Gladys Rebecca White King (daughter of Thomas and Rebecca White), written at age 96 1/2, July 1997):

When Thomas Eli White and Rebecca Jane Frazer decided to marry in 1882, it was with much faith in the future. He had a few dollars in his pocket and she had nothing at all. They were married on Sunday so he would not miss a day's work. He was working at helping to build Henry County's first railway, the "K-Line", later called "Old Jerky". They lived with her widowed mother [Mary M. (Hockett) Frazier] the first year of their married life and then lived on rented farms for many years.

He bought a small farm and later added some adjoining land. When his sons grew old enough to be of much help on the farm, he turned his talents to several business projects. He bought farmers' wool each spring and shipped it by rail to Chicago. He also bought young calves and accompanied them to Chicago by the carload.

As time went on, they raised a family of twelve children---all of whom became adults, which was very unusual at that time. The welfare of the children took first place in all my parents' plans. They were interested in giving the opportunity of the best education available at that time and willing to do anything possible to give them a good start in adult life.

They were wise, kind, and loving parents. With God's help they were able to say, "We are proud of them---the whole round dozen!"

"The History of Henry County, Iowa" (1982, by Henry County Bicentennial Commission), taken from the biography of Robert H. White on page 430, written by

Mrs. Gladys King [daughter of Tom and Rebecca White]:

"The oldest son of the first family was Thomas E. White and he was the only one who remained in Henry County and raised a family here. He was married on October 30, 1881. They were married on Sunday so that he would not have to miss a day's work. He was working for the railroad and was helping to build the "K" line (called by many "Old Jerky") that ran from Keokuk to Mt. Pleasant.

He was married to Rebecca Jane Frazer of the Denova community. They met when a group of young men from Salem rode horses to the Denova school house to attend a weekly Spelling Bee.

Thomas E. White and Rebecca Frazer faced life together with almost nothing. He had a few dollars in his pocket and she had nothing. Her mother was a widow and they lived with her the first year of their married life. At the end of the first year, they rented a farm. He traded his over coat for a heating stove because as he said, "The coat would only keep me warm, but the heater will keep us both warm."

Through his life, Thomas White was a farmer, a livestock buyer, and several other occupations. He was a Supervisor of Henry County from 1914 to 1920.

There were twelve children born to this union, all of whom became adults. Four are still living. . . .

Thomas White died suddenly on January 19, 1924 and is buried in South Cemetery at Salem. Rebecca Frazer White remained a widow until March 29, 1953 when she died in the hospital at Mt. Pleasant at the age of 91, and was buried at Salem. A devoted husband and father. A wise and loving wife and mother. A great legacy left for the children and grandchildren." (Written by Mrs. Gladys White King, daughter of Tom and Rebecca White]

Obituary, "Salem News", January 24, 1924:

THOMAS ELI WHITE

Thomas Eli White was born Oct. 10, 1858 at Lynnville, Jasper county, Iowa; departed this life Jan. 19, 1924 at Salem, Iowa aged 65 years, 3 mon. 9 days.

At the age of five years he came with his parents to Henry county and from that time has made this county his home.

He was united in marriage to Rebecca Frazier Oct. 30, 1881, and to this union were born the following children: Mrs. Earl Dillavou, Mrs. S. D. Garretson, Fred White of Salem; Mrs. Max Spray of Hillsboro, Mrs. J. A. Mills of Winnebago City, Minn; Roy White of Salem, Dr. Geo. White of Riverside, Ralph White and Mrs. Marion King of Salem; Leota, Vera and Darrel at home.

Mr. White also leaves one brother George of Richland, Oregon; two sisters Mrs. E. H. Ratliff of Nezperce, Idaho; one half-brother Ray of Knoxville, Ia; two half-sisters Mrs. Rev. C. W. Cochran of Muscatine, Ia and Mrs. Steve Morris of Mt. Sterling, Ia.; and thirty-six grandchildren.

He is the first to break the family circle and the remaining ones have the sympathy of a host of friends and loved ones in their hour of sorrow.

About twenty-seven years ago during a revival conducted by Rev. Mrs. Sutliff at the Maple Grove schoolhouse, he received Christ as his personal Savior. He was a birthright Friend, but at the time of his conversion by his request was received into the active membership in the Cedar Friends church. Some years later he had his membership transferred to Salem meeting where he has loyally supported the work.

For a number of years he has been prominent in the affairs of the county having served as a member of the board of supervisors for six years, and at the time of his death was a member of the board of appraisers for inheritance tax; also a member of the board of education of Salem.

He was a friend to all and especially to those in need. A great lover of home and was never so happy as when his loved ones were all around him. The community has lost a friend, the children a kind and loving father, and the wife a devoted husband, and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Yet our loss is his gain, and surely the prayer expressed by his favorite hymn, "Pass Me Not, Oh Gentle Savior," will not be unheard by the one who doeth all things well.

The funeral services were held in the M.E. church which was filled to its utmost with friends and relatives, testifying to the high esteem in which he was held."

Miss Ruth Sampson Becomes the Bride of Mr. Roy White

A very quiet wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage when Miss Ruth A. Sampson became the bride of Mr. Roy A. White. Rev. Frank E. Weston, pastor of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony and only the immediate friends and relatives were present. Both parties are very well known over the county. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.M. Sampson, south of the city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T.E. White and is a very successful young farmer. The couple will go to housekeeping on a farm southeast of the city.
